

1 - Let us start this month by thanking God for the beginning of the new year. Whether it has been busy or calm; good or bad; it is always good to praise Him.

2 - This afternoon, our WCCYM Music Group will be meeting to prepare to be part of the Thirst Youth Service on Sunday 11th February. Pray for the young people as they come to this group and for confidence as they serve at Thirst.

3 - Beth Keenan, an ordinand within the Lordsbridge Team, is doing a placement with us. Pray that she settles in well and finds this time useful.

4 - Cambourne Church has been doing a series called 'Frontline Sundays' reminding everyone that where they are during the week matters to God. Pray that the young people take this to heart and serve God where they are.

5 - We have year 7 groups running in both Comberton and Cambourne Village Colleges on a Monday. Pray for these groups and those that are running them.

6 - We are continuing to use our social media presence to honour God and share the gospel of Jesus. Pray for Nick as he oversees this and looks to have time to do it.

7 - Cherie and Susie will be leading a training session for Teaching Assistants in Comberton Village College. Pray that these sessions are beneficial to all.

8 - EDGE Community Youth Club continues to be well attended at Comberton Baptist Church. Pray for the team around this, and the great missional opportunity that it brings.

9 - Tonight, Deeper will be gathering to eat Lasagne and to explore Christianity. Pray that the discussion will be rich and helpful.

10 - What are you doing this evening? Coming to the WCCYM Quiz is the correct answer. Pray for a good attendance, an excellent time and a helpful dose of support towards WCCYM Finances.

11 - Thirst, this month, will see Beth Keenan sharing from a parable and Keith Tarring leading us in Communion. Thank God for the opportunity to bring young people together in this way.

12 - Adam will be helping at Forge tonight. Forge is Cambridge YFCs discipleship programme. Pray for all those involved and attending, may they meet with God through these events.

13 - Continue to pray for Cherie and the Chaplaincy work we do in Comberton Village College. Also pray for the opportunities at Cambourne Village College to increase our work there.

14 - Today is Valentines Day, a day when we often take a moment to appreciate those we love. Take a moment now to pause and reflect on 1 John 4:7-21 where we are reminded that God is Love.

15 - Thank God for all the different lunch groups we run and the students we see at them all. May God meet with each of them in the way that they need.

16 - WCCYM Discipleship wraps up its Kintsugi Hope series this evening. Pray that the young people will know how to 'Choose Joy' in their different situations.

17 - Pray for WCCYM Weekend happening 15th to 17th March. Pray for the plans being made by the team, for Hannah Overton who will be our guest speaker and for the young people who will be attending. Pray that God will prepare their hearts.

18 - Gamlingay Baptist will be hosting another Youth Sundaes event during their Third Sunday café. Pray that they continue to connect with the young people in the community through this.

19 - This week is half term for many schools in the area. Pray for the opportunity for the WCCYM Team, including all the great volunteers, to rest from the regular activities they run.

20 - Pray for the young people who will be getting a chance to rest this week. May their rest come from Jesus and guide them to him.

21 - Thank God for all those that work in schools. May they get good rest this half term.

22 - Whether you tick the categories covered in past three days or not, thank God for the opportunities to rest that he has given you.

23 - Cambridge YFC will be running a Fort Rocky weekend residential. Pray for Adam and the team that are running this. May the conversations over the weekend be kingdom moments.

24 - Nick continues to lead a table-top role play group. May the young people continue to be encouraged by the game and enjoy being creative together.

25 - Churches across the country gather today. Pray that people will meet with God at these services.

26 - Pray for the WCCYM Team as they continue to meet regularly to support one another and make plans for reaching the Young People with Jesus.

27 - Many of the young people we work with have been stepping into leadership roles at our events. Thank God for their gifts and passions. Pray that God grants them confidence and peace in this way too.

28 - Hardwick Evangelical Church are continuing to think how they can best reach children and families in their community. Pray for them as they develop plans to move this forward, especially as they consider employing someone.

29 - This year is a leap year... Hence today... Spend today thanking God that we have an extra day to praise Him.
